Incorporated

Australian Government

Aged & Community
Services • Australia

Aged & Community Services of NSW & ACT Inc , in conjunction with Aged & Community Services Australia and the Aged Care Association of Australia, has secured funding to conduct workshops to outline the key changes to workplace law as a result of the Fair Work Act 2009.

The workshops will give an overview of the relevant key features of the Act, including;

- The safety net of minimum employment conditions;
- Unfair dismissal provisions;
- Collective bargaining and enterprise agreements;
- The Fair Work Australia institutions and
- Modern awards

Participants will gain a better understanding of the opportunities and flexibilities offered by Australia's workplace relations system.

The training and support is being offered free-of-charge to employers and employees in the aged care industry.

Morning/Afternoon Tea will be provided
